Sixteen of the crack whist players of Carson, go to Reno tonight to meet an equal number of Reno players. We always supposed poker was Carson's strong suit.

The Reno Gazette is a trifle mixed as to the dates, when it says that Senator Jones voted for silver's demonetization in 1873. He was not in the Senate at that time.

The people of Carson are all wondering how much clothes Trilby will wear when posing in the studio scene. Whether it will be a case of "for the altogether" or not quite all.

John P. Harman, a tramp, discovered the $50,000 hidden by robbers near Sacramento and has been having a good time with the money ever since. It might have fallen into worse hands.

Reverend Eddy will go to San Francisco the 29th. While there he will be ordained a priest by Bishop Nichols in St. Paul's Church, the same church in which he was ordained a deacon.

The Carson Guards will give a dance on the evening of February 21st at Army Hall. Two beautiful prizes, which are on exhibition at Golden's, will be given to the lady and gentleman holding the lucky numbers.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. Benton's Liniment is for sale at all drug stores

INTERESTING LETTERS.

A Democrat Who Won't Stand Goldbug Candidates.

The following correspondence will be interesting to Silver Democrats in Nevada:

Headquarters of the Democratic State Central Committee.

Indianapolis, Jan. 28, 1896.

Hon. P. Hansen, Eureka, Nevada, Dear Sir:—The Indiana Democracy presents to the national party for its favorable consideration, as it earnestly hopes, the name of Gov. Claude Matthews for its standard bearer in 1896. At a meeting of the Democratic State Committee, held in the city of Indianapolis, on the 11th day of December, 1895, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Here follows a long rigmarole of resolutions and a biographical sketch of Matthews, but in no part of the sketch is any mention made of Matthews' position on the silver question. The letter closes as follows:

Will you kindly inform me, at your earliest convenience, of your candid opinion as to the probabilities for support, either in your District or State? Thanking you in advance for any favor, I am,

Yours truly,

Sterling R. Holt,

Chairman Dem State Committee.

To this Mr. Hansen replied as follows:

Carson City, Nev., Feb. 14, 1896.

Mr. Sterling R. Holt, Chairman Democratic State Central Committee, Indianapolis, Ind., Dear Sir:—Yours of Jan. 28 at hand. Will state in reply that any Democrat to receive the electoral vote of this State, must in addition to receiving the Democratic nomination on a straight and unequivocal free silver coinage platform, at the ratio of 16 to 1, also have the endorsement of the different Silver organizations, as they will appear united in National Convention.

The large majority of the people, and especially Democrats of the Jeffersonian belief, of which you claim Mr. Matthews to be a representative, are tired and disgusted of being dominated by the gold monopoly and their cookoo-sycopants.

If conditions as above outlined can be obtained, such a nominee would sweep the entire Coast.

P. N. Hansen.

THE CHICKEN CASE.

Indian Gardner and Louis David Bound Over.

There was a hearing before Justice Hawthorne yesterday of the boys implicated in the chicken case. It was shown that the thieves broke into the chicken house in the night by prying off the latch of the door, and the complaint against them was for burglary. The evidence showed that John Gardner, the Indian, and Louis David were the only ones who took chickens. One of the Gill boys was asked by Gardner to sell a chicken next day, and he did so, not knowing it had been stolen.

After hearing the testimony Gardner and David were bound over to answer before the Grand Jury on the charge of burglary, with bail fixed at $500.

Trilby.

Mr. Potter has made "Trilby" a play that fairly teems with action and dramatic effect. The story is told in a comprehensive, straight-forward manner. Every situation is reasonable and natural; there are no anti-climaxes, no repetitions, no extraneous theatrical devices, the development of the story is logical and consistent at all times. Mr. Potter has followed the book rather more faithfully than is the custom with the average dramatist. Most of the characters have been reproduced with wonderful fidelity. Little Billee, Taffy and the Laird are Du Maurier's portraits brought to life. Svengali is depicted with horrible realism, Gecko is the same weird, pitiable specimen of a musical enthusiast that the book portrays. Jolly Zou Zou, reckless Dodo and the half-dozen other minor characters which have become so well known and admired by the public are graphically represented.

The conference of mutual accident insurance companies of the United States which assembled at Boston to discuss the bicycle rider as an accident risk, has finished its deliberations. The companies have unanimously resolved that bicycling is a hazardous occupation, which they cannot insure against at the present rate of premium, and in the future the cyclist will pay double rates for his insurance or receive less indemnity or give up cycling, so far as his accident insurance is concerned.

One good thing about the Maher-Fitzsimmons fight is, that it demonstrates to the world that the United States has a standing army.

THE HARD TIMES PARTY.

It is well Attended by our Leading Citizens.

The hard times party last evening was a great success. It was understood that people should come in their common everyday clothes and that the couple showing the sign of the times the most in their apparel should receive a prize, over-dressed people were to be fined.

The people who tried to get prizes were numerous.

Jewett Adams was there with some store clothes he had bought of J. C. Hagerman in Reno in 1872.

D. A. Bender was on hand with a coat of the vintage of the Hays campaign.

Alex Ardery had on an old mining shirt that he came to the country in over twenty years ago.

Bob Gritmon, of the Arlington, tried to ring in for a prize by wearing an old pair of boots, but his diamond pin gave him away and he was a poor third.

Lieutenant G. verner Sadler was there in his Eureka county campaign suit, and told the committee that he hadn't drawn down a cent of salary since he was in office. He came very near winning the prize, and it was nip and tuck for a spell between him and Cutting.

Tom Riekey looked as if he had just been rounding up steers. He said he had stopped all his papers to avoid paying printers bills. His tale of poverty was listened to with great interest.

Billy Westerfield had on a rig all over quartz dust, but as the quartz assayed high, he was thrown out.

Sheriff Kinney attempted to get the prize, by not having changed his socks for three weeks. Several members of the committee were strongly in favor of him.

At the hour of going to press, the committee were considering Frank McCollough and his Pine Nut costume, and had passed a resolution of censure on Vic Muller for appearing in a recently washed horse blanket.

Going to Reno.

Don Hickey, for nearly twenty years the keeper of the Brunswick Mill boarding house near Empire, left for Reno last evening where he has leased the Hotel Reno, and will open it on the 22nd. Mr. Hickey has been a sort of landmark at Brunswick every since anybody remembers much about the place. He always set a royal table and the provender dealt out to the people at the Brunswick, was rated far and wide as equaled nowhere else in the State.

Every man, woman and child on the river knew Dan Hickey if they saw him on a hill top a mile off, and his absence from there will cause the little old steam to look like some other place for a few months.

Fine Beef.

John Rosser has hanging in his butcher shop half a dozen steer carcasses which dressed nearly 800 pounds apiece. They were two-year-old beef and it makes a man's mouth water to see them.

William Thompson and H. H. Beck of Reno have brought the question of hiring Torreyson and Summerfield, attorneys, by the county of Washoe, before the Supreme Court on a writ of certiorari. They were hired by the county to prosecute a suit for a fee of $1000. Thompson and Beck claim that the act of the Board was illegal.

The French Count who wedded Anna Gould a few months ago, is already enamored of a little French actress who is assisting him to spend Anna's money. Although his ardor for his wife has cooled, his love for her daddy's dollars is said to be as devoted as ever.

The Reno Gazette is now advocating purity in politics, and announced that it has reformed. In that case it might be a good idea to send for Big Bertha and have her make a few campaign speeches for the purity ticket next fall. They'd make a great team.

CHEAP CUSTOM WORK A DECEPTION.

A style of tailoring is rapidly gaining headway which is but an imposition upon the consumer and a detriment to the workman. The cheap custom work or what is called "special order work," is a shrewd dodge for the purpose of deceiving the customer into the belief that he is obtaining custom work at ready made prices. The real worth of custom work lies in the exactness of the fit, and the thoroughness in which it is made. Cheap custom work is therefore inferior to ready made work.

Large concerns, some also engaged in ready made work have grown up of late and depend for patronage upon retail stores, and have numerous agents scattered everywhere soliciting orders and gain trade because of the strikingly cheap prices offered for goods made to order. As a rule these agents seldom obtain an order twice from the same person.

It is about time that this scheme was exposed to the people and ABE COHN of the EMPORIUM shows up the fraud. If you want clothes that fit and are tried on as often as is necessary call at the EMPORIUM Court House Building, Carson City, Nevada.
